VOL. 17. GLASGOW, MO., THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 13, 1856. NO. 38.

VALUABLE FARM

For Sale or Rent.

THAT well known Farm on the State Road leading from St. Louis to St. Joseph and Hannibal to the latter place, about four miles East of Keosauqua, Chariton County, Mo., formerly owned and occupied by the late James Herfford.

The subscriber being desirous of leaving Missouri for a milder climate, will sell low for cash, or will give time on one half of the purchase money. This Farm is so well known that it is unnecessary to say to strangers coming to the country that it is one of the best Stock Farms, and that the soil is unsurpassed by any in the country; no bar can probably be found in the country, and as to its locality for doing any public business, no better can probably be found in the State.

The farm consists of 255 Acres; 130 under cultivation, newly fenced. There are three good Wells, besides plenty of stock water. Possession given immediately.

For further particulars, call on the undersigned, on the premises or address him by letter, at Keosauqua, Mo. WILLIAM RUSSELL.

March 6, 1856-14.

A FINE FARM

FOR SALE.

THE farm of Nathan Holloway deceased, situated near Miami, Mo., is offered for sale. Said farm consists of 400 acres, 225 of which is in a high state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a spacious dwelling House, with good outbuildings, barns, &c., a good orchard, a mill in good running order, and everything about it complete for immediate occupancy. The land is well watered and timbered. For further particulars apply to N. M. HOLLOWAY, Miami, Mo. August 30-14.

SLAVES FOR SALE.

THE undersigned will keep constantly on hand, Negro men, women, boys and girls, in Huntsville. All persons who wish to buy negroes can make it to their interest to call on the undersigned, or address them by letter, giving a description of the kind of slave desired. H. L. RUTHERFORD, Huntsville, December 23, 1856.

CASH FOR PRODUCE.

W. B. BARTHOLOW, paying Cash for Dry Goods, Dry Apples, Flaxseed, Barren, Lard, Wheat, Corn and produce generally. Persons having any of the above for sale, will please call on us before selling.

W. B. BARTHOLOW & WILLIAMS.

(Successors to Nanson & Bartholow.)

Forwarding and Commission Merchants,

And Dealers in all kinds of

Produce and Boat Stores,

WATER STREET, GLASGOW, MO.

THANKFUL for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to them by Nanson &

Bartholow, they beg to announce that their facilities for the present year are greatly increased, and they hope by strict and personal attention to business to merit a liberal share of patronage. We have safe and ample room for every description of storage—our new Warehouse being immediately on the Plank Road, with an excellent landing from the lower story, and for safety and convenience cannot be excelled by any Warehouse on the river.

We are also in the market, paying cash, for every description of Produce, or will ship for account of Farmers, rendering an early account of sales.

BARTHOLOW & WILLIAMS.

ANDREW L. KERR,

COMMISSION & FORWARDING

MERCHANT,

SMITH'S HOTEL,

GLASGOW, MO.

The undersigned has opened a large and commodious Hotel between Second and Third, and Market and Howard streets, in this city. His house is new, and fitted up in the very best style, and has ample facilities for a first class hotel. He has spared no pains in making his rooms elegant and comfortable. His table will at all times be furnished in a manner to gratify the most reasonable wishes of his guests. The situation of his house is one of the most pleasant and healthy in this city.

There is a good livery stable close at hand, where stock will be well attended to. The public are respectfully invited to give him a call.

W. M. SMITH.

Shirley House,

FAYETTE, MO.

THE undersigned has opened a public house in Fayette, Mo., on the south-east corner of the Public Square, where boarders and travellers shall receive every necessary attention.

In connection with this house, a new stable and a carriage house have been built, which will be attended by the most careful and experienced hostlers, and conveyances will be furnished to any of the neighboring places.

Jan. 19. JAS. A. SHIRLEY.

Harry House,

BRUNSWICK, MO.

THE subscriber has removed to his new and commodious Hotel, near Broadway, where he will be pleased to see his old friends and travelling public generally. No pains will be spared to render his guests comfortable, and his sojourn at his house a pleasant one. The Hotel has been furnished with every convenience, and he flatters himself, that no house west of St. Louis is equalled. His table will at all times be furnished with the best of the market affords—the Bar will be furnished with the most choice liquors.

Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, he solicits a continuance of the same.

BRUNSWICK, June 21, 1855. N. HARRY.

GLASGOW HOUSE,

Water Street, Glasgow, Missouri.

THE undersigned respectfully announces that he has leased the above house, and is prepared to accommodate all who will favor him with a call.

He has renovated his rooms, and rented these adjoining, which gives him ample space to accommodate a greater number of persons than the establishment would heretofore render comfortable.

Stage office for all the lines terminating at Glasgow, and good stabling convenient.

January 3, 1856. W. M. THOMPSON.

GLASGOW HOUSE

Livery Stable.

—BY—

JOHN T. MARR.

HAVING purchased the Glasgow

House Stable, he is prepared to accommodate the travelling public, or private families, with

Carriages, Buggies and Saddle Horses, at short notice. His Carriages and Buggies are

ENTIRELY NEW—HIS STOCK FRESH—and those who may patronize him will find everything as it should be.

Horses boarded by the day, week or month.

Passengers conveyed to any point desired.

Intending to give his entire and personal attention to the business, he hopes to merit and receive a share of the public patronage.

Aug. 28, 1856. JOHN T. MARR.

GLASGOW LIVERY STABLE.

THE subscribers having formed a co-partnership for the purpose of carrying on the

LIVERY BUSINESS,

we announce to their friends and the public, that they are now prepared to accommodate the travelling public, and citizens generally with

Carriages, Buggies or Saddle Horses, at a moment's warning, and on terms as favorable as can be asked. In addition to the stock on hand, we have already been made, and they are constantly adding stock suitable for the saddle or harness, and will at all times keep, subject to call, a Slew of 40 Horses, adapted to all the wants of the community. Their

CARRIAGES AND BUGGIES

are entirely new, from the manufactory of Mr.

T. H. Osborne, of this place, and will be kept in a good state of repair.

A Good Hearer and Carriages, always ready to attend Funerals in the place or vicinity.

Families can at all times rely on good Carriages and careful drivers.

Travellers conveyed to any point, and taken at a moment's notice, thus saving the trouble and expense of going to a Hotel.

Call at the old stand, or at our

NEW STABLE,

on Water street, in the building recently occupied by Jas. H. Forbis, as a Grocery Store.

Horses bought and sold.

Horses boarded by the day, week or month.

BLACKSMITHING.

HAVING purchased the shop and tools of Mr. J. H. Finney, the subscribers continue the

SMITHING BUSINESS,

at the old stand, in all its various branches, and share of the public patronage.

Mr. Finney will have entire charge of the shop, under the supervision of our Mr. THURK, who is an experienced workman himself, and it is hoped all who may give us call, will have their work so promptly and satisfactorily done, as to give general satisfaction.

Particular attention paid to horse-shoeing, with no detention longer than is actually necessary to do the work.

THE BRIDE OF THE TOMB.

BY AN OLD SEXTON.

"A lady at Mr. FRANKLIN REIDE's wishes to see you," was the message delivered by a servant to me one afternoon many years ago.

"Who is she?"

"Mr. Reide's niece."

"What does she want of me?"

"I don't know."

"Are you sure she wants me? I am a sexton."

"That's what she said."

"Very well; I will be there in half an hour."

I knew Mr. Franklin Reide very well by reputation, and in common with the rest of the world, I had a very indifferent opinion of him. People said he was anything but an honest man, and he certainly was never known to do a noble act.

Several years before his only brother had died, leaving a daughter of sixteen to inherit his large fortune. But he left her, it was said, wholly in the power of his brother

Franklin, who was appointed her guardian, and who was the contingent heir. It was well known that Martha Reide led a very unhappy life, that she was seldom seen in company, and that her health had been very much affected by her circumstances.

Of course such a state of things as this bred an infinity of scandalous stories. Those who attended to other people's business were quite certain that Reide meant to kill his niece, and thus obtain her property. In accordance with my habit I paid but little attention to this gossip; and when I entered the Reide mansion, I was less prejudiced against its owner than the majority of those who knew him.

The servant was leading me up stairs, where Miss Reide's ill health confined her, when her uncle met me on the stairs.

"Ah, Mr. Mortal," said he, "I am glad you have come. My niece has been wishing to see you for some time
